REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE APPOINTMENTS TO THE INDIAN ORDER OF MERIT (CIVIL DIVISION).

1. General.—The Indian Order of Merit (Civil Division), which is governed by the Royal Warrant, dated the 25th August 1939, consists of one Class only.

2. Appointments to the Order.—Appointments will be made only by His Excellency the Viceroy. Any Indian British subject or any subject of a Ruler of an Indian State may be appointed to the Order for any act of conspicuous personal bravery in aid of public authority or the safety of others.

3. Procedure for the submission of recommendations.—Recommendations for appointments to this Order will be forwarded by the recommending authorities to the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy for submission to His Excellency. In the case of civilians, the recommendation will be made to the Head of the Province and will be forwarded by him. In the case of subjects of Rulers of Indian States, the recommendation will be forwarded through the Political Officers concerned; and in case of Indian Officers and soldiers, through the usual military channels.

4. Record of Awards.—A record in each case of the particular act of bravery for which the Order has been conferred will be kept by the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy, and a certificate signed by him, declaring the grant of the Order, will be given to each individual on his appointment to the Order.

5. Privileges of the Order.—Members of the Order will be entitled to use the letters "I.O.M." after their names. As a rule the conferment of the Order of the Civil Division will not be accompanied by any monetary allowance; but His Excellency the Viceroy reserves to himself the right of making such a grant in addition to conferring the Order, in special cases.

6. Forfeiture and restoration of the Order.—(i) Forfeiture.—Misconduct on the part of any Member of the Order will render him liable for expulsion from the Order and the forfeiture of the insignia and privileges pertaining thereto. A full report of such circumstances shall be furnished to the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy, together with an expression of the opinion of the forwarding authority; and it shall thereupon be open to His Excellency the Viceroy to direct the expulsion of any such Member from the Order and to require the surrender of his decoration.

(ii) Restoration.—His Excellency the Viceroy may reinstate a person expelled from the Order; a recommendation for reinstatement will be submitted through the same channels as that for expulsion.

7. Diposal of the insignia on death or on expulsion from the Order:—

(i) The insignia will be withdrawn from a Member on his expulsion from the Order and returned to the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy through the channels prescribed in paragraph 3.

(ii) In the event of the death of a Member of the Order, the badge is not to be returned.

J. G. LAITHWAITE,
Private Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy.
